

Crescent City Chapter

Dinner Meeting

GUEST SPEAKER:

Lt Col Jim Conner, USAF (Ret)
Member, MOAA's Board of Directors

Conner graduated from the University of Nebraska with a Master of Science in biology and completed a Master of Science in guidance counseling from Ball State University. As a navigator in the RF-4C Phantom in Southeast Asia, he was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross. From Royal Air Force Alconbury in England, he was chosen to compete with the U.S. team during Royal Flush, a NATO reconnaissance competition. At Air Training Command in Texas, he became a navigation instructor and curriculum evaluator. As a recruiting squadron commander in Ohio, Conner's unit was selected best recruiting squadron in the Air Force. He served as the deputy director for Operations of Air Force recruiting and finished his career as a logistics officer in NATO. Retiring from the Air Force, he joined the University of Florida as a senior biological scientist, doing research for commercial agricultural companies and receiving the Davis Productivity Award. A Life Member of MOAA, he has served in many positions in 26 years, including chapter and Florida council presidencies.
